

Dolly's Coffeehouse

SATURDAY, February 7, 2026, 7pm
Blue Hill Congregational Church

Open mic followed by featured performer:

Ben Pfohl

A long-time resident of Blue Hill, Ben is a singer, songwriter, and guitarist. He plays mostly original music, ranging from contemporary folk to country to blues and maybe even borderline acoustic rock and roll. His lyrics are at times poignant, sometimes ironic, and often politically exasperated, all sung with a decidedly unrefined vocal style backed up by solid guitar playing. Whether dark or amusing, it should be entertaining.

The first hour will be open mic, where everyone is welcome to perform: music, mime, poetry, dance, etc. Performers are asked to arrive a few minutes early to sign up.
